Through the efforts of the Clubs and Organizations Council, a special program in the Auditorium today will feature performances in the annual spring Talent Show.

Students will display their talents in various individual vocal, group vocal, dance, comedy, instrumental, and specialty acts.

The eleven acts that were chosen were: Paula Moss, Ted Levatter, Candy Nash, and Debbie Shulman, individual vocals; Linda Kacorzyk, and Sue Willbergh and Rosalie Rosenblot, dance; Joel Hoffman, comedy; Bob Felton, John Evans, Dennis Price, cello; Mark Farrens, Bob Dawson, Dave Robinson, Scott Mitchell, Larry Fredrick, Victor Craft, Jeff Skipper, John Abernethy, Curtis Dalton, as the "Tijuana Gas"; Shari Gallacher piano; and Irving Katz, Terry Jester, John Stilo, Don Sidel, "The Knockouts," a specialty act.

The acts were chosen by a team of judges who carefully screened the performances by means of auditions held in the past several weeks in order to determine which acts would best suit the Reseda stage. The judges were representatives of the various clubs and organizations at Reseda.

They evaluated the auditioners by using a point system: one point given for an outstanding act, two points representing an average performance, and the lowest rating being three points. The talent receiving the least number of points earned a place in the show.

Responsible for the organization of the event were the members of C&O Council, under the leadership of Ron Saks, director; Kathy Chase, secretary; and Ann Bradley, director of assemblies.

Each of the divisions of student talent chosen were to be sponsored by a specific organization in C&O. The Council, sponsored by Mr. Edward Dunn, has been actively engaged in planning the show for the past month.
