

Holiday Season Starts Off in Style

Program is Example Of Season's Spirit

Vol. 13, No. 4

RESEDA HIGH SCHOOL

December 17, 1965

MUSICIANS REHEARSE CHRISTMAS MELODY: Under Mr. Leonard Gagliardi's direction preparations are made for the Christmas assembly. Photo by Lucas

BY MARSHA GOODWIN

A combination of groups at Reseda High School will present today the annual Christmas program to the Student Body and parents of participants. The groups will include the chorus choir, dance and drill team, dra-

Orchestra and the dance group presented "Christmas Suite" arranged by Walters, and Concert for Orchestra" accompanied by Carol Gordon, Shari Gallecher, and Barbara Rose. Female voices sang the "Hush-a-Room" Carol. ma students, and stage crew.

"In keeping with the Reseda tradition, explained Miss Margaret Hindee, "these Christmas programs are scheduled in order to celebrate the festivities of the season, and make it a joyous one for participants and listeners." The program, consisting of music and a modern dance interpretation of two orchestral selections, is narrated by drama students chosen by Mr. David Farley, drama instructor.

Trying for solo parts in the singing portion of the program were Peggy Wilms, Candy Nash, Kathy Hamlin, Cathie Johnson, Eileen McMann, Karen Kutz, Ingrid Selland and Bryan Rich. Miss Hindee has selected those most qualified.

Included in the Christmas presentation are the melodies "Echo Noel," using two choirs, and "Lovely Infant," arranged by Soverly. Also presented by the choir are "Masters of the Hall," and "O Holy Night," by Spenser.

Choir and orchestra were combined to sing the "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah," and the "Chanukah Festival Overture." Chorus and choir together featured "Jingle Bells" arranged by Ray Charles, and the melody "Do You Hear What I Hear."