

Drama Production Memories: 1965: A Young Lady of Property

Wilma Thompson is a star-struck girl in the small Texas town of Harrison. Her pride is the family house which she inherited from her mother. Wilma plans to run away to Houston to try out for parts in a movie with her friend, Arabella. Wilma's father decides to sell the house and move away. He is persuaded not to part with the prize possession, then Wilma gives up her dream of a career to stay in Harrison.

The Thespians presented A Young Lady of Property to the student body on April 5 in preparation for competition in the annual Thespian one-act play festival held at East Los Angeles College.

CAST

| | | | |
|-----------------|----------------|------------------------|----------------|
| Wilma | Patti Meyer | Martha | Tina Taylor |
| Arabella | Shiela Kirby | Russell Walter | Gary Mussell |
| Lester | Jeff Litman | Man | Chuck Mochantz |
| Aunt Gert | Shirley Gregg | Student Director | Sue Kirby |
| Minna | Lillian Singer | Student Producer | Brian Helstien |

